Re: William Engelman v. NITV Federal Services, LLC

Dear Mr. Kaiser:

Despite repeated requests, you still have not provided us with a date upon which your client is available for deposition. With the discovery deadline approaching fast, we have no choice but to issue the enclosed formal notice of your client's deposition for April 5, 2007. Should this date not be convenient for you or your client, we certainly will do our best to come up with an alternative date. We also would like to depose your client's wife, whom we assume you also are representing. Although we are aware that Mrs. Engelman is not a party to this lawsuit, it is our hope that we can arrange for her deposition (preferably on the same day as Mr. Engelman) without having to issue a subpoena. If this is not the case, then please notify Christy Nageleisen or me immediately so that we may arrange to have Mrs. Engelman served with a subpoena. Should we not hear from you, we will assume that: (1) Mr. Engelman will appear for deposition pursuant to his notice; and (2) Mrs. Engelman agrees to appear voluntarily for her deposition on April 5, 2007 beginning at 3:30 p.m. at our office.

Very truly yours,

KEATING MUETHING & KLEKAMP PLL
